The Client acknowledges that certain project features may require third-party services, including but not limited to:

- Hosting Services
- Cloud Infrastructure
- Payment Gateways
- SMS Services
- Email Services
- Push Notification Services
- Domain Registration
- App Store Accounts

Fees associated with third-party services are not included in this Agreement unless specifically stated in writing.

The Client shall be responsible for maintaining active accounts and subscriptions for such services.

11. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Upon receipt of all payments due under this Agreement, the Service Provider shall assign to the Client all rights, title, and interest in the final developed software, excluding:

- Proprietary development frameworks
- Reusable code libraries
- Development tools
- Third-party licensed components
- Pre-existing intellectual property owned by the Service Provider

The Client shall receive ownership of the custom-developed application, website components, designs, and project assets created specifically for this project.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY

Both Parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of all proprietary, financial, business, technical, and operational information exchanged during the course of this project.

Neither Party shall disclose confidential information to any third party without prior written consent unless required by law.

This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement.

13. WARRANTIES

The Service Provider warrants that:

- Services shall be performed in a professional manner.
- Deliverables shall substantially conform to agreed specifications.
- The Service Provider possesses the necessary expertise to perform the services.

Except as expressly stated herein, no additional warranties, express or implied, are provided.

14. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Service Provider's total liability arising from this Agreement shall not exceed the total amount paid by the Client under this Agreement.
